Mansfield Senior High School

145 West Park Blvd.

Mansfield, Ohio

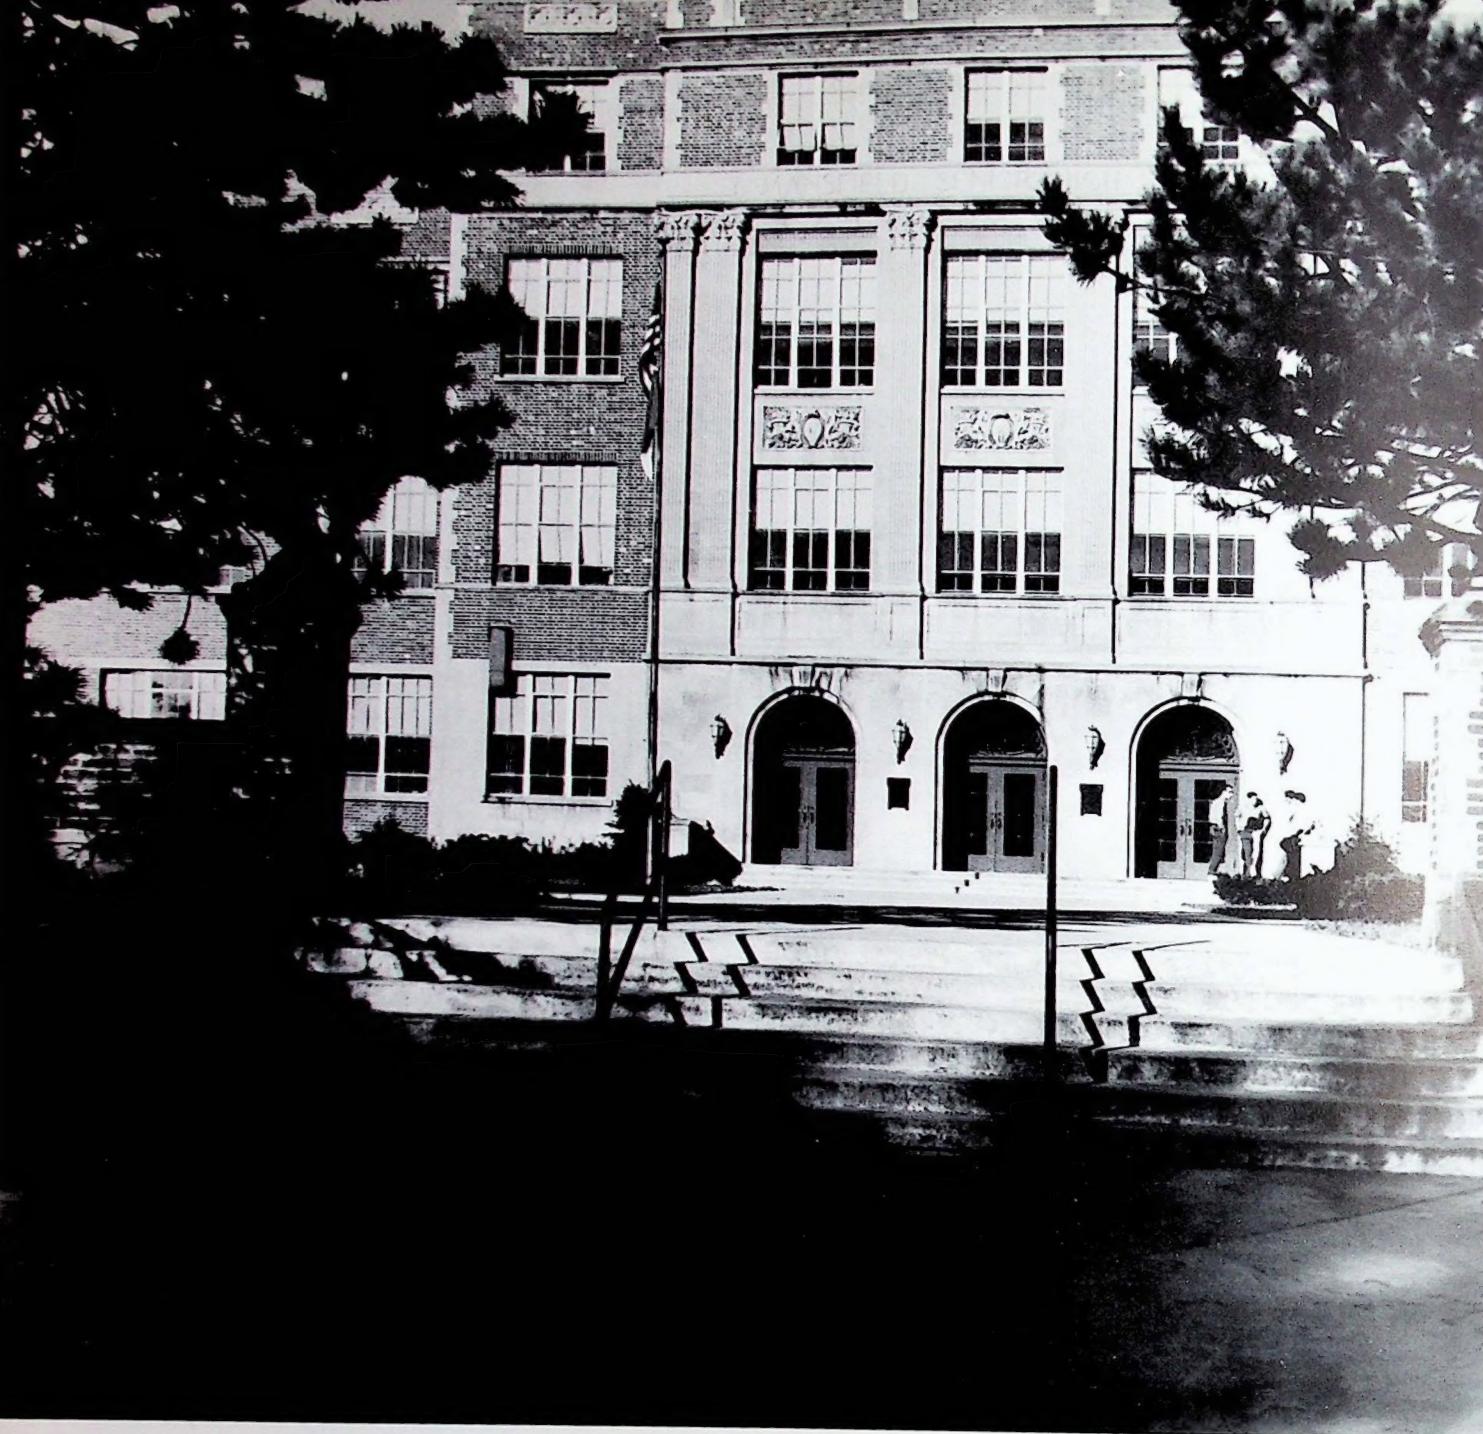

Symbolic of Mansfield Senior High School, the Tyger embodies every phase of school life. Homework, pep rallies, and club projects are all parts of the Tyger. From year to year the Tyger changes as students advance toward graduation. On occasion the Tyger's home has been modernized and enlarged; this year the renovation of the shop and gym area began.

As we read through the following pages, we are reliving our school life and activities of the past year. This book, then, is the story of the Tyger's life for one year.

The Life of . . .

... a TYger

During the past year, as in the previous years, the M. H. S. Tyger served as the focal point of our lives. The majority of our waking moments was spent within the confines of Senior High. Through the first part of our day we studied hard, but upon the sounding of the bell at 3:05 our interests and activities radiated in all directions. Some of us were interested in service, others in athletics, and some in cultural diversions. However, all were somehow related to school spirit--the spirit of the Tyger.

Mr. Charles Sauder

By his academic excellence and his willing service, Mr. Charles Sauder exhibits the spirit which we all emulate. He is not only a fine teacher, but also a fine man.

Mr. Sauder graduated in 1945 from Mansfield Senior High School, where he was chosen the outstanding senior boy in his class. While earning his A.B. from Wooster College, he was elected to membership in Phi Beta Kappa.

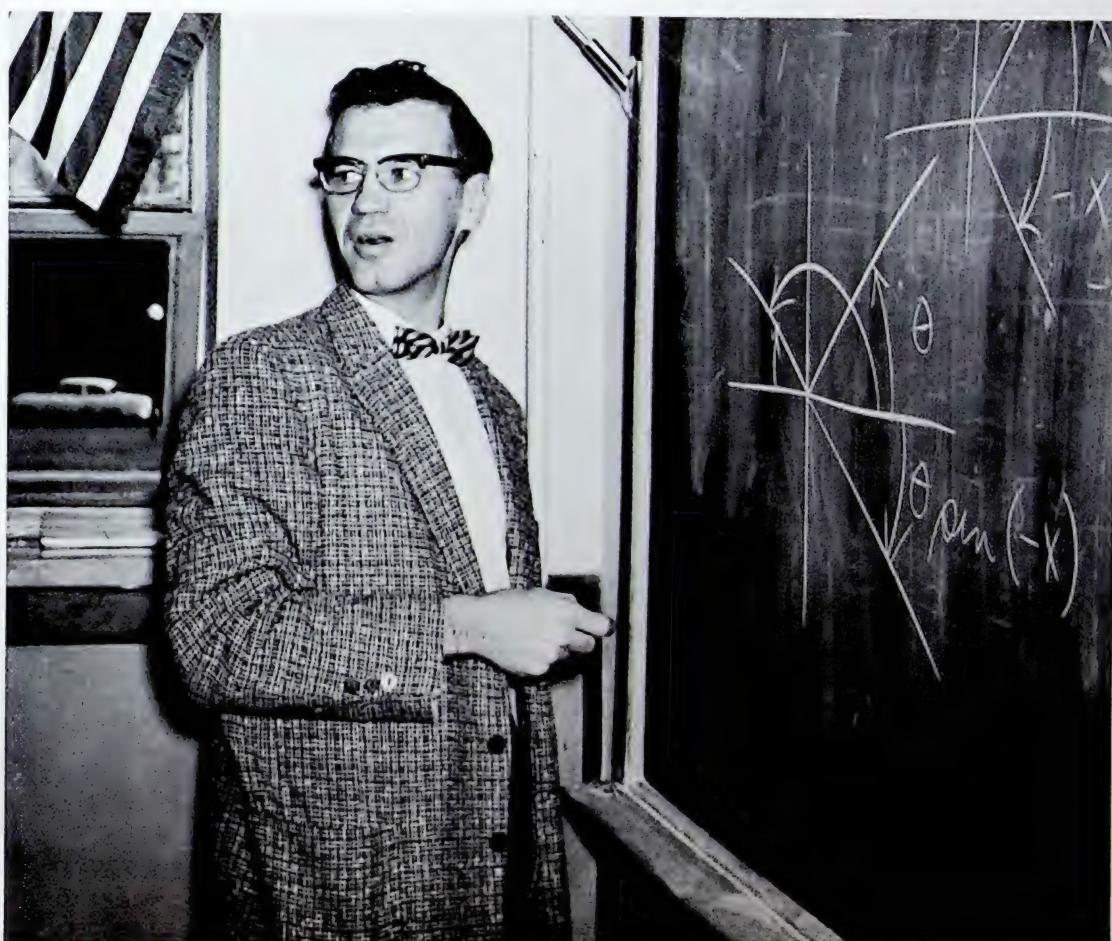

Mr. Sauder began his teaching career at Johnny Appleseed Junior High School in 1952, and after two years he transferred to Senior High. During a leave of absence in 1958, he received his Master's Degree from Ohio State. Throughout his career, Mr. Sauder has worked mainly in the field of mathematics. This year he taught Algebra I, trigonometry, and College Math, while managing the bookstore.

Mr. Sauder also serves as trustee of the Apostolic Christian Church and as director of its Vesper Choir.

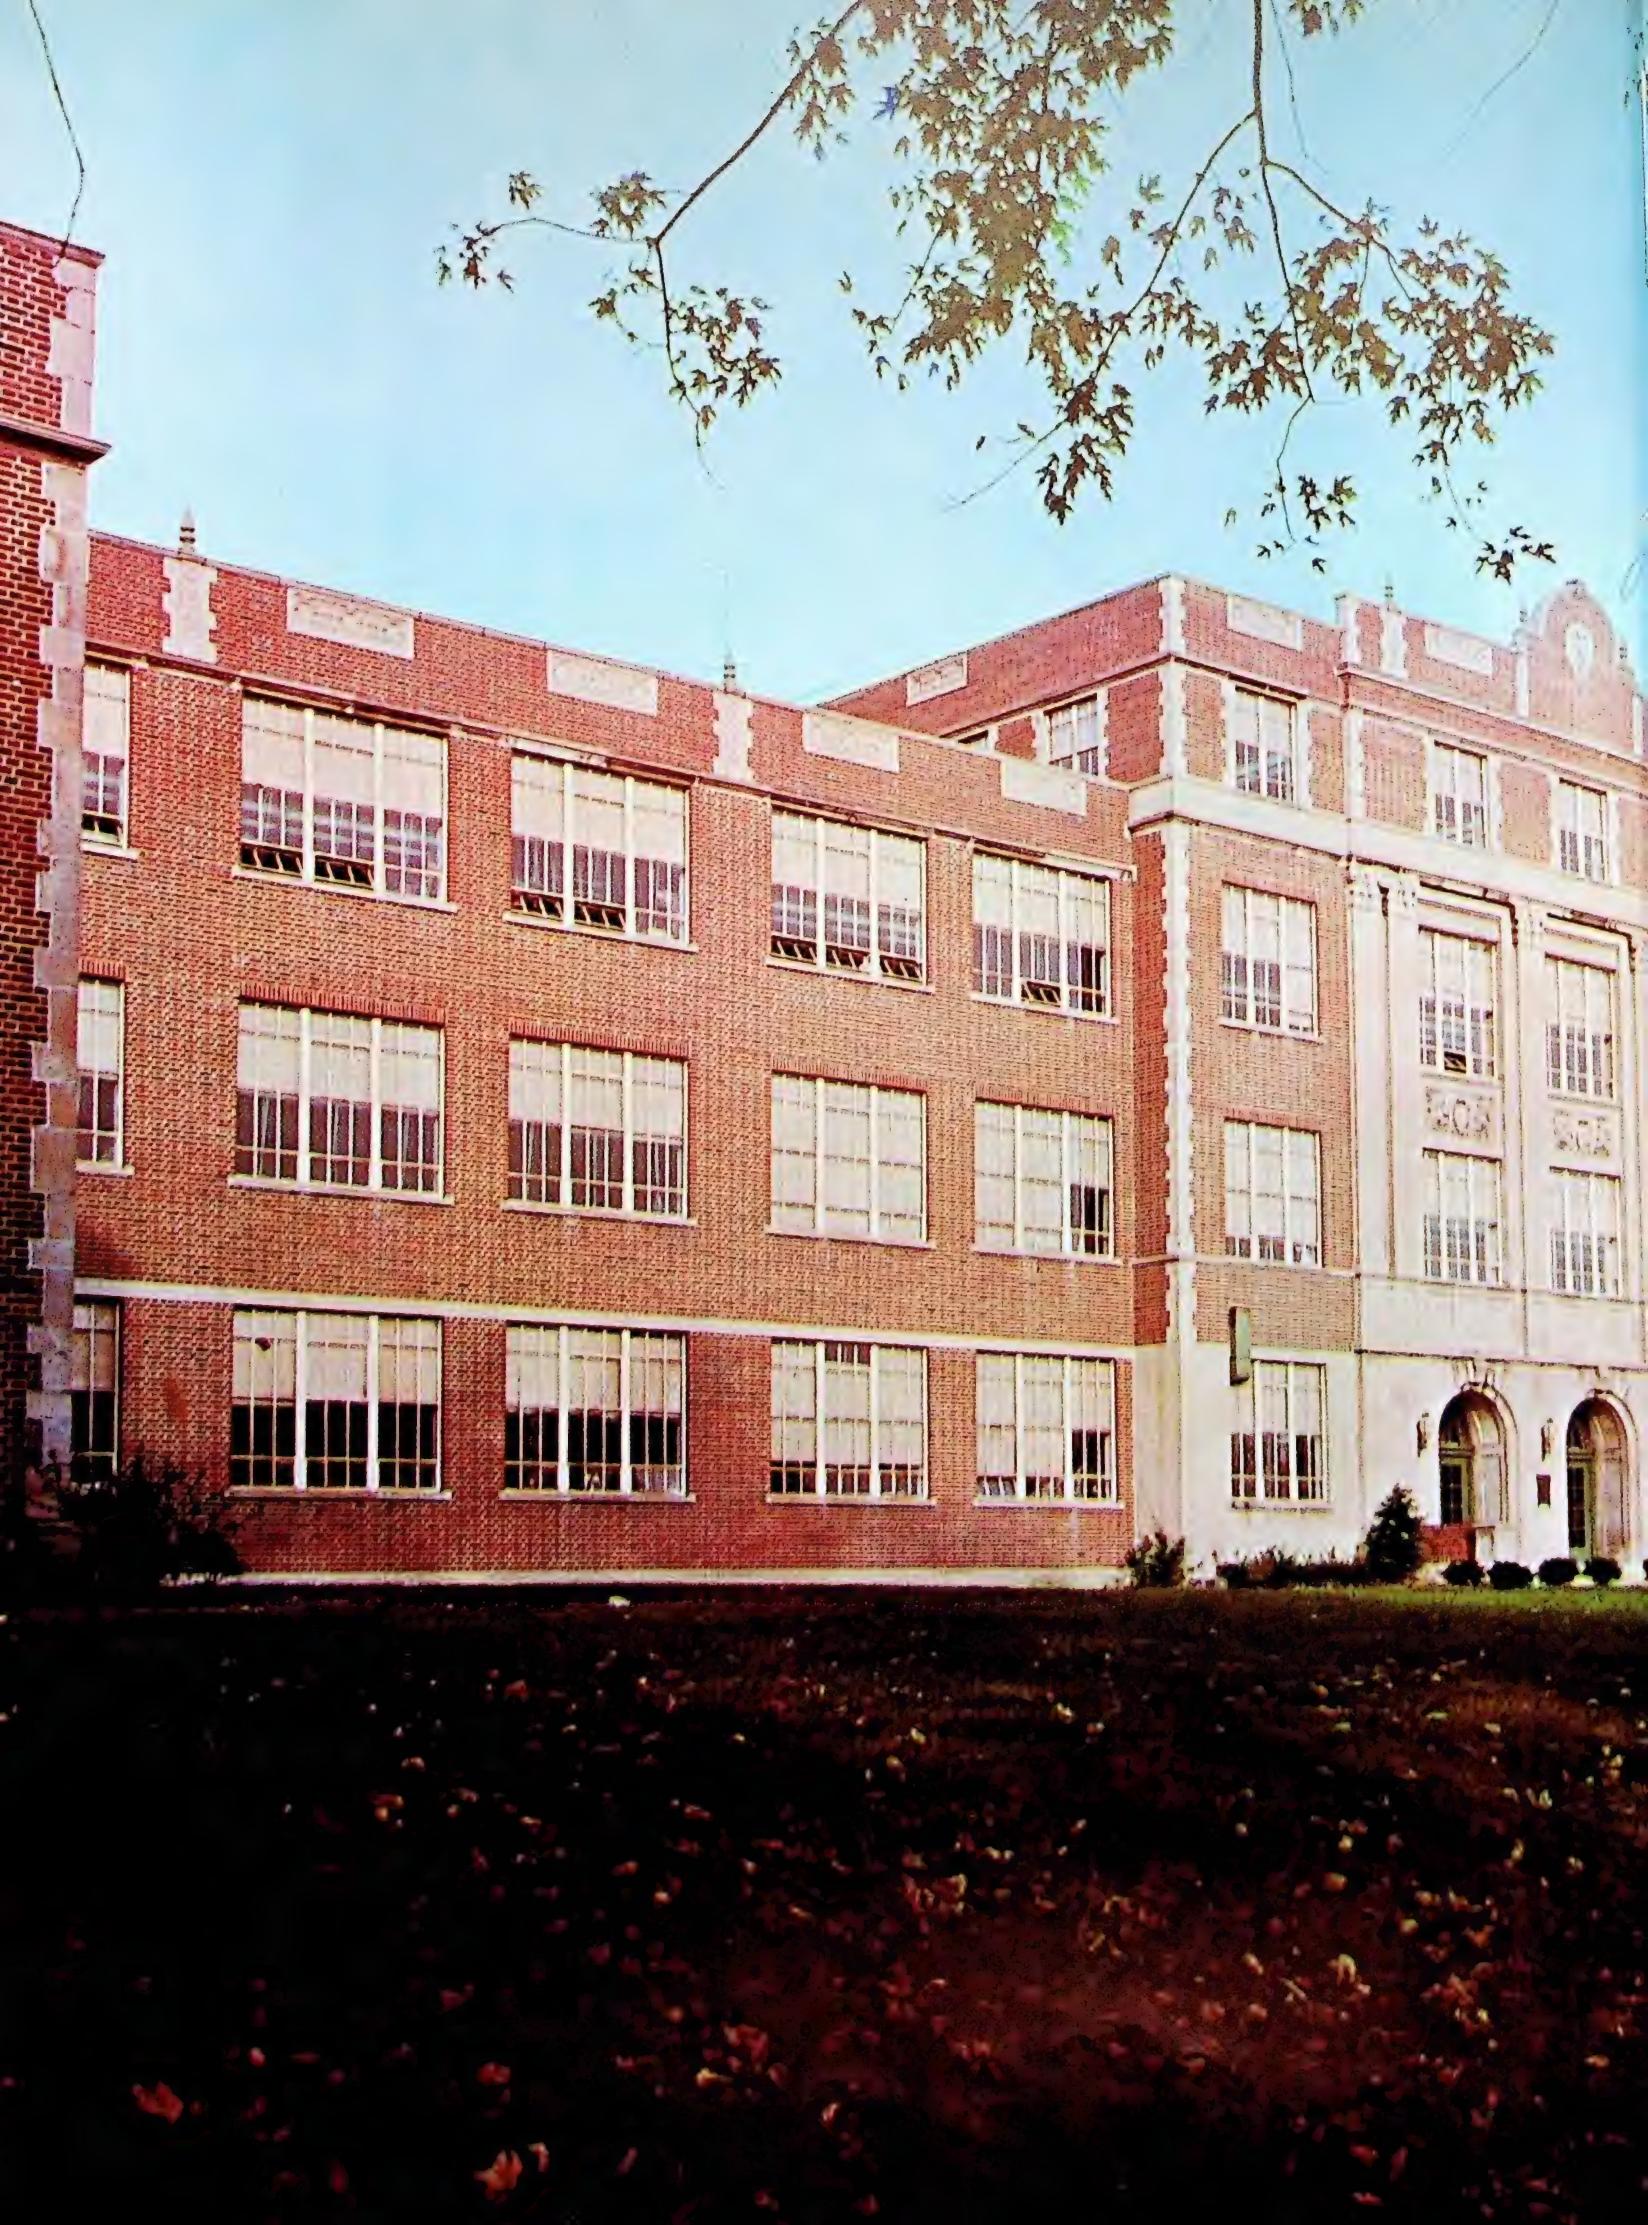

To you, Mr. Sauder, we dedicate the 1965 Manhigan.

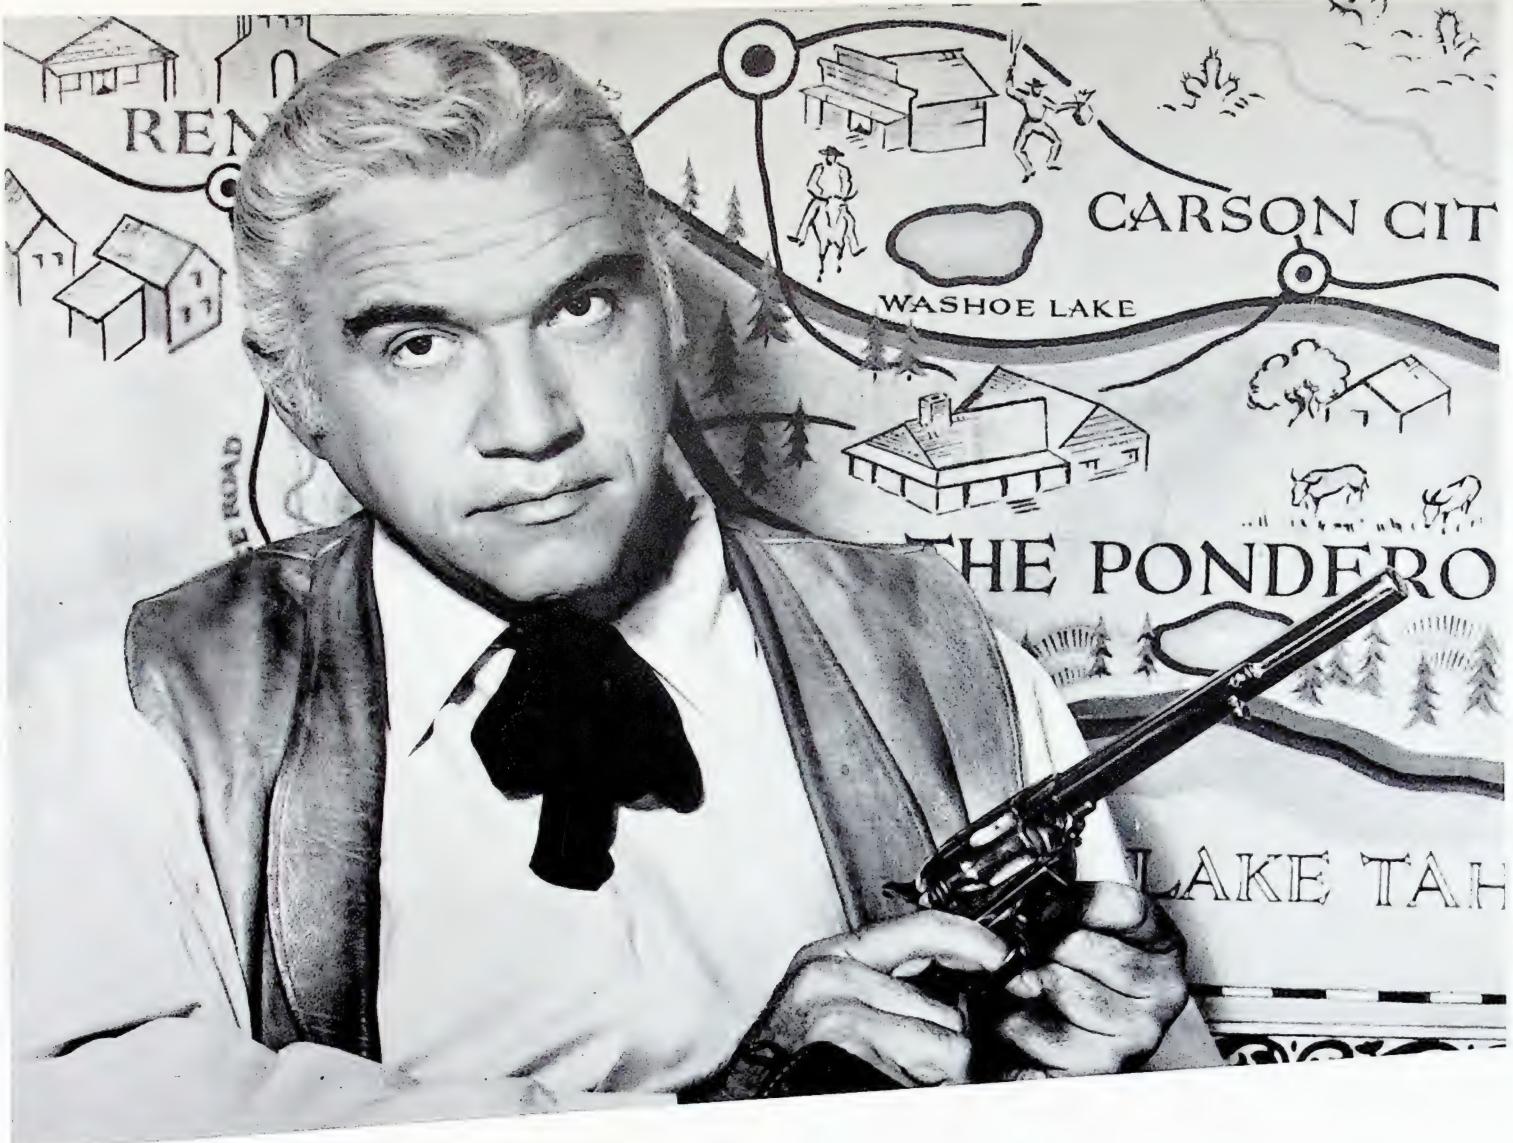

Mr. Sauder gave up his preparation period to work in the bookstore.

What? Sine 60° = 1/2?

Miss Kathe Ott
251 Euclid Avenue
Mansfield, Ohio

Dear Kathe:

Thank you for your letter of February 20th.

Mr. Greene received your letter just recently, and of course it was held up as it did not come directly to him. He regrets he can't write to you himself. He is leaving Los Angeles tonight and will be gone until the end of the month.

Mr. Greene finds all the girls lovely and attractive. He found it so difficult to choose the winner by himself, that he had to ask some people at the studio to help him. Her picture will be attached to his photographs, and also has a mark in red ink on the reverse side.

Lorne sends his best wishes to all the girls. He thinks they all should win.

I sent you more than one picture, as I didn't know which one would look best in the year book.

Sincerely yours,

Nancy Rieder

Who Says Pep Assemblies Aren't Great?

It took an enthusiastic coach to lead a winning team, and Coach Burkett symbolized the spirit which never gave up.

An early evening bonfire kindled the spirit and fervor of the fans who followed the Tygers through a rigorous football season.

Where there was pep, there was Ted Fraker...

...and where there was laughter, there was Candie Fluke.

Center of Enthusiasm ...

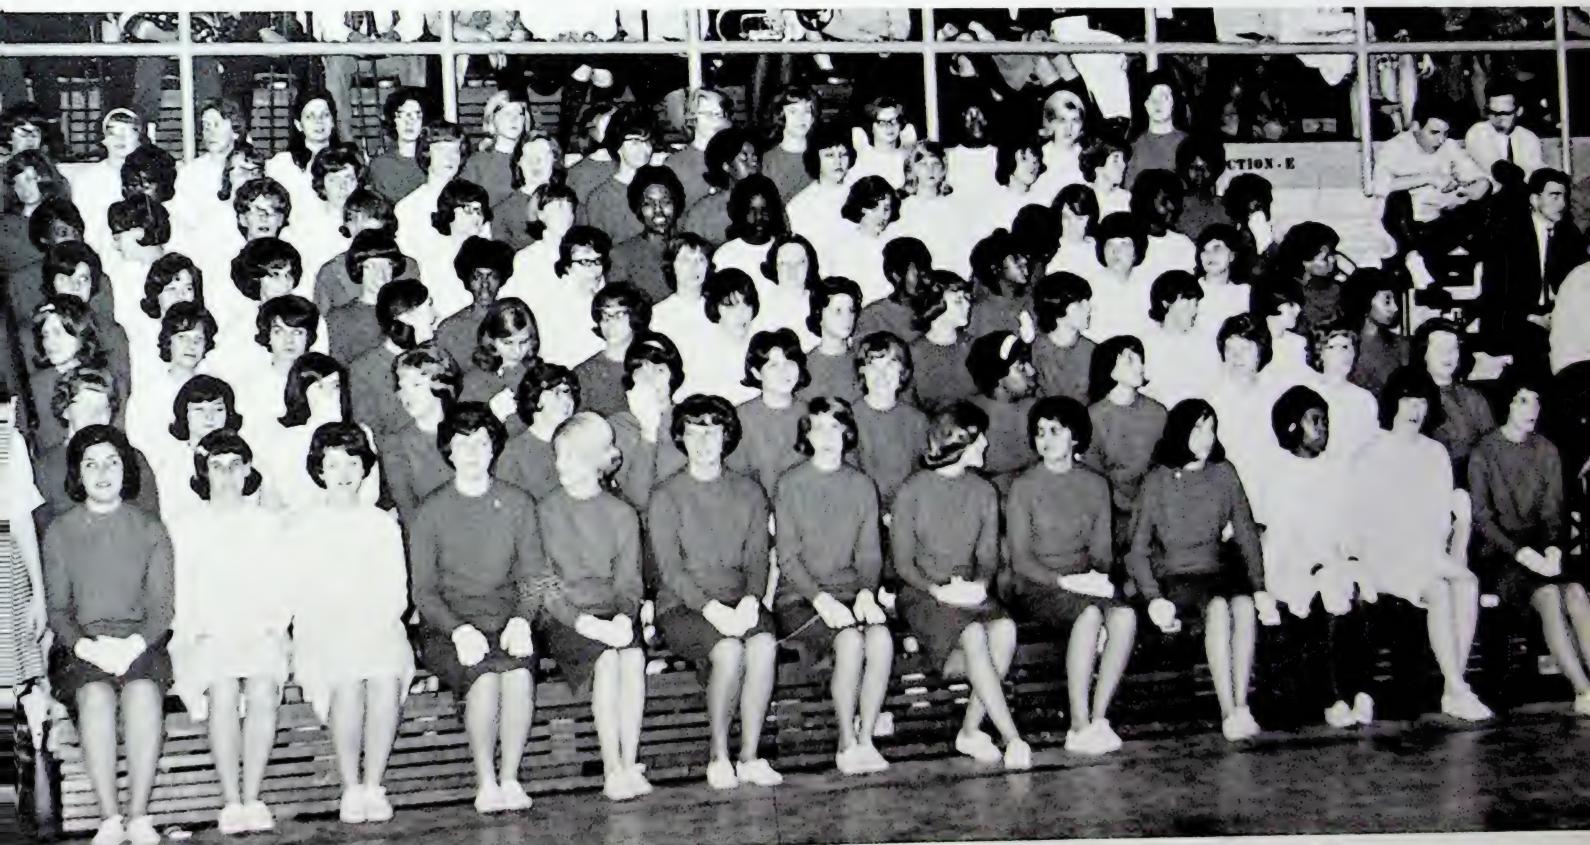

The most vivacious of the Tyger fans, the 1965 Varsity Cheerleaders, clockwise from the upper right, are Marsha Jones, junior alternate, Tina Bare, Marci Hattman, Molly Mosey, Cheryl Weisenburger, Gayle Fishburn, Kathy Simon, Nancy Griffith, Sandy Estill, senior alternate, and Kim Garnes, Tyger alternate.

Heading the "M" Section for 1965 were Bev Scott, junior captain; Paulette Waldman, senior captain; Laurie Shipton, treasurer; and Susi Skeese, secretary.

Democracy in Education

This worthwhile organization of representatives from each homeroom and twenty-five members-at-large served its school well by organizing many important activities. Among these were producing the Student Handbook, managing the Lost and Found, the candy machine, general elections and the Christmas basket drive, flying the Honor Banner, arranging housing for the Mansfield Track Relays, and planning the track assembly.

The Band Plays On!

The Pep Band supplied the necessary zeal for pep assemblies and basketball games.

The concert band used its sectional rehearsal to prepare for one of its many performances.

The ninety-member Varsity Marching Band, which participated in all football games, home and away, helped support itself by selling candy. Later, the Concert Band attended the Band Directors' Convention in Hilliard, Ohio, the Buckeye Band Festival in Findlay, Ohio, and the District Band Contest at Ontario, Ohio. This year's officers included President Keith Eberhardt, Vice-President Terry Squire, Treasurer Kathy Meister, and Secretary Carolyn Hall. The band was again under the direction of Mr. Percy Hall.

M.H.S. Choir at Its Usual Best

Under the direction of Mr. A. LeMoine Derr, the Mansfield Senior High Concert Choir presented many fine programs throughout the year. The variety of concerts began with an annual Christmas Program on December 18. On February 23 and March 23, the choir performed in assemblies at John Sherman and Johnny Appleseed Jr. High School respectively. The Buckeye Festival at Marion was next on the agenda, taking place on April 30. The schedule was concluded by the Annual Spring Concert. In addition fifteen programs featuring vocal ensembles were presented.

Long hours of practice in this room assured polish to the final performance.

Senior High and Malabar combined for closing songs.

Anne Marie and Toni spent many hours together knitting.

Anne Marie Spiro, who lives in France, was brought to M. H. S. for a year by the First English Lutheran Church. She resides with the Richard Vaughn family, whose daughter, Toni, is also a senior.

While at M. H. S., Anne Marie not only served on the set committees for both V. V. and the Senior Class Play but was a member of "M" Section and secretary of the French Club.

Shirley Bledin, whose home is in Cape-town, South Africa, was brought to M. H. S. through the American Field Service. She is staying with the Dr. Robert Garber family. Like her American sister, Linda, she participated in V. V. and the Senior Class Play. Shirley was also a member of Junior Achievement and cheered in the "M" Section.

Nachiko Ide, who is receiving her high school education in America, will complete her last two years at M. H. S. Nachiko, a native of Japan, is staying with Mrs. Weston Cutter. Her musical interests include the piano, the ukulele, and the violin.

Working as a reporter on the Hypho is also one of her interests.

Shirley was quite thrilled at seeing her first real snow.

Miniature Governments

Bob and Bud review Bud's notes for his speech.

Linda Garber was selected last June to attend Girls State held at Capital University in Columbus. She was a Nationalist and served as an engrossing clerk in the Senate.

Selected to attend Boys State, which was held at Ohio University in Athens, were Bud Huber, Terry Squire, Bob Brown, and Keith Eberhardt.

These five representatives were chosen on the basis of grades, activities, and contribution to the school. They all participated in miniature governments.

At Boys State, Bob and Bud were Federalists, while Terry and Keith were Nationalists.

Bud was one of seven who served as clerks in the House of Representatives. He received the award as the outstanding clerk of the House. Bud was also kept busy making posters for the candidates who ran for state offices from his party. Bob, who was defeated for Lieutenant Governor, was the Parliamentarian in the House. Keith was the municipal judge for his party, and Terry was a member of the House of Representatives.

Linda tells about her trip to Girls State.

Jim Goff, John Bechtel, Ron Schiniski, Steve Barclay, Tony Schnuerer, and Martin Campbell, under the supervision of Mr. Barclay Walker, comprised the Stage Crew, invaluable to the activities of the school.

Another indispensable group was the Audio-Visual Crew. These boys provided assistance with film strips, record tapes, and the public address system at assemblies and sports events.

Much of the success of "Travels With Charley," which drew a standing-room crowd during its second performance must be attributed to the long hours spent by the directors, producers, and class advisors, as well as the general enthusiasm of all those who took part. Jerry Burkhardt, director, assisted by Diane Sqrow, devoted endless time to stage direction while Ted Fraker, producer, and his assistant, Ruth Klingensmith, gave their energies to props, sets, programs, tickets and innumerable other necessities. Recognition must also be given to Mr. Donald Morrison, Mrs. Eleanor Ryckman, and Mr. Bruce Waite for their ever-present assistance and guidance.

CLASS OF 1965

Senior Class Has Active Year

For a 1965 Tyger, the memories of his three years at Mansfield Senior High School will never fade.

As a sophomore, he was one among the many of his crowded classmates. Elected as class officers were President Bob Crittenden, Vice-President Ron Klein, Secretary Barb Wilging, and Treasurer Steph Bogner. The major class project was the sale of light bulbs. Soon all was over, and the year was highlighted by the sophomore prom with a Parisian theme.

Lack of classrooms was the cause of the Tyger parting with a third of his classmates, who became Malabar Falcons. Serving as junior class officers at Senior High were Ron Klein, president; Glenn Lambert, vice-president; Laurie Shiplet, secretary; and Resa Nichols, treasurer. With the end of football season came a lovely Homecoming event, "Blue Serenity," with pretty Kathy Simon reigning as queen. Next, candy was a successful junior class project, the profit going toward graduation expenses. All too soon came the junior prom, called "The Year of the Tyger."

Being a senior meant much to the Tyger, and he was busier than ever before, working endlessly on the outstanding production of "Travels With Charlie," 1965 Varsity Varieties, and "Charley's Aunt," the remarkable class play. This last school year was ended by Class Day, the Senior Prom, Baccalaureate, and the most important event--Commencement. The Tyger donned his red or white cap and gown to receive his diploma.

In his mind, those enjoyable years will linger forever. The Tyger spirit remains as he goes into the great world--whether it be to master an occupation or to further his education.

Scholars and Leaders Participate in Honor Society

Waiting for the meeting to begin.

President Bob Miller stated, "The object of this chapter of National Honor Society shall be to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Mansfield Senior High School." Bob, and Jim Dillon, vice-president; Sue Tatgenhorst, secretary; and Bill Simmons, treasurer, acted as officers of the society, and Miss Mary Spiggle was advisor.

This year's National Honor Society acted as the nucleus for the newly formed College Club and carried out any activities assigned from the administration. They met on the first and third Mondays of each month in room 404.

Members Become Acquainted with College Life

A new group that formed this year was the College Club. Meeting on Mondays after school, the twenty members were presented with various programs of interest to the college freshmen. How to choose a school, entrance requirements, and various facets of college life were only a few of the program topics.

Instead of having officers, the College Club was led by a planning committee; the members were Gary Burns, Jim Dillon, Rich Moore, Carl Dixon, and Mary Williams. Mrs. Virginia Imhoff, advisor, offered many tips and valuable information to the oncoming collegians.

Amateur Radio Club, newly organized this year, achieved its purpose of teaching students enough radio theory to receive their operating licenses.

At the meetings the boys practiced Morse code and learned how to operate radio equipment. Mr. Nickolas Miu, advisor, directed the members in setting up amateur radio stations.

Instruction is given on how to operate the radio equipment.

Minutes from the previous meeting are being read.

Another new club to organize at Senior High this year was the Future Homemakers Club. Capably led by Gloria Jones, president; Diane Keith, vice-president; Sandy Patrick, secretary; and Marsha Jones, treasurer, the girls met once a month in room 212. Mrs. Eilene Smith and Mrs. Helen Perrill, advisors, stated that the purpose of the Future Homemakers Club is to further the interest in home economics, to provide wholesome individual and group recreation, to help develop leadership in home and community, and to promote appreciation of satisfactions of homemaking.

Programs are being planned for future meetings.

Assisting President Jim Smucker were John Bechtel, vice-president; Claudia Ruffin, secretary; and Mary Yockey, treasurer. Mr. Charles Marchant acted as club advisor.

One of the highlights of the year's activities was a trip to All Prints, a photo-finishing plant. Instruction on how to take better pictures was given at the meetings held every other Tuesday, alternating with Science Club.

The officers of Chess Club.

President Roger Slugg assisted by Warren Zerby, vice-president; Andrea McClellan, secretary; and Larry Hepner, treasurer, were the officers of this year's Chess Club of M. H. S. The main purposes of this club were to improve the games of the participating members and to learn more about the game of chess itself.

To add competition and challenge to the chess games, Mr. Charles Marchant, club advisor, and the officers planned several chess tournaments throughout the year for the members. The Chess Club met on Fridays in room 304.

Achievers Organize and Operate Individual Companies ...

Junior Achievement of Northeastern Ohio gave students in the Mansfield area experience in the world of business and economics.

In the fall, fourteen companies were organized by members who sold stock for capital. Each company, a miniature of the sponsoring Mansfield firm, was governed by five officers and a board of directors, with Mr. John Ahart as the executive director.

Junior Achievement operated like a small community with its own J. A. bank. Each company did its individual banking in the community bank and even had a checking account available. Members of the companies were responsible for producing and selling products to gain profits and to learn the procedures in business.

Throughout the year achievers strove for membership in the $100 Sales Club. One highlight in early spring was the selection of the Best Salesman, who represented the Mansfield area at the state convention in Cincinnati. In May the Honors Banquet, at which many students received awards and scholarships contributed by local industries, culminated the year's activities.

Teachers of Tomorrow Visit Schools, Obtain First-hand Impressions

The Future Teachers Club of M.H.S. was advised by Mrs. Nellie Gates and Miss Virginia Howard. Interested in the teaching profession, the members participated in several activities which gave them a better insight into this vocation. Some of the members ushered when the N.C.O.T.A. met in Mansfield in October.

Elected to serve as officers were Stan Beal, president; Jo Ellen Hill, vice-president; Jeanne Hout, secretary; and Jane Beal, treasurer. The group met on the first Thursday of each month.

Serving school, community, and county was the Junior Red Cross of M.H.S. This organization helped the needy in hospitals and nursing homes and contributed much to charity at the Richland County Chapter House of the Red Cross.

President Kathy Meister headed the activities of the goodwill organization and was assisted by Harry Prats, vice-president; Sandy Cash, secretary; and Carol Klein, treasurer.

Three main projects of this year's Junior Red Cross were Christmas caroling at rest homes, making small souvenirs for the sick, and collecting money for the Chapter House.

Mrs. Helen Perrill and Miss Mabel Chipps advised the club, which met on the second Thursday of each month.

Putting lots of pep into all M.H.S. activities was this year's active Pep Club headed by President Ted Fraker. Busily planning several new events, Ted was assisted by Candie Fluke, vice-president; Kathy Simon, secretary; and Sandy Estill, treasurer. The club was advised by Mrs. Laura Evilsizer.

Members of the senior executive committee of Pep Club were Resa Nichols, Laurie Shipton, Judy Heitz, and Sue Snyder. The junior executive committee included Linda Brandenburg, Cathy Heiser, Alexis Owings, and Andy Stern.

The projects Pep Club sponsored during the year were a gigantic bonfire before the Mansfield vs. Massillon football game and several school dances. The club organized all pep assemblies, sold candy, shakers, and ribbons and was responsible for a surprise day at M.H.S.

The Varsity "M" Club of M.H.S. was an organization for all varsity lettermen. The club, advised principally by Coaches James Burkett and William Flanegan, had three main purposes: to act as a service organization, to promote and maintain a high standard of athletics, and to instill a feeling of fellowship among the athletes.

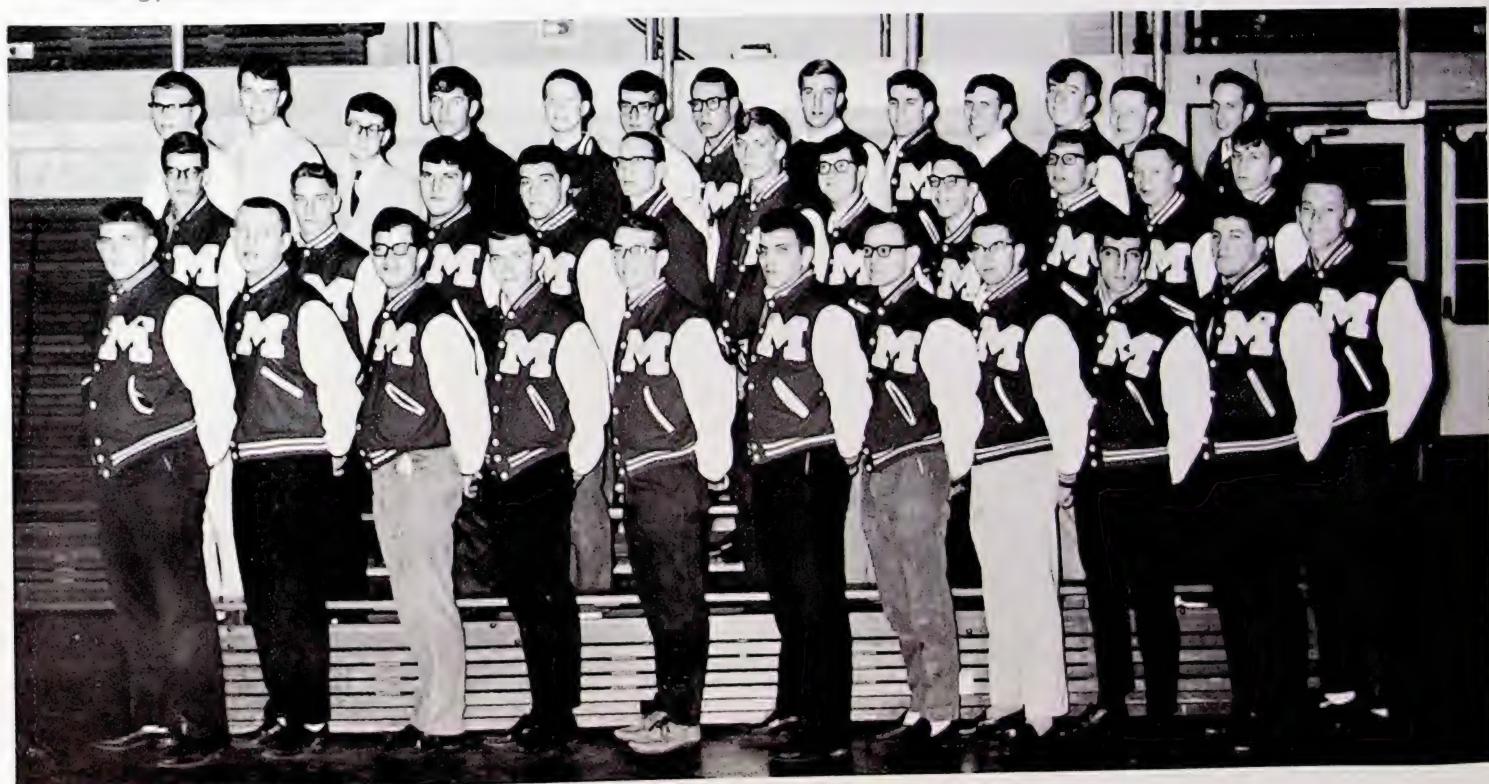

Led by Rich Wallace, president; Ron Parr, vice-president; Charlie Harpster, secretary; John Miefert, treasurer; and Kerry Dean, sergeant-at-arms, the group met every other Tuesday night.

The club's projects this year were handling the coat check at basketball games and sponsoring two school dances and the Winter Sports Banquet. The Varsity "M" Club also completed the Hall of Fame in the gymnasium lobby.

Pinata Party Highlights Year

Enjoying a snack while watching a movie on Spain.

This year El Círculo Espanol elected Fritz Schmidt as president; John Bechtel, vice-president; Linda Berry, secretary; and Jane Beal, treasurer.

Several skits, films, speakers, and discussions helped to further the club's knowledge of the Spanish people, language, and customs. The highlight of the year was the annual December pinata party, attended by all the members.

Miss Spiggle served as advisor of this active language club, which met every second Tuesday of the month in 404.

The officers conducting the meetings of French Club were Gary Burns, president; Linda Garber, vice-president; Anne-Marie Spiro, secretary; and Geri Dent, treasurer. Miss Joan Isaly advised the club.

Members spoke French at the meetings in order to get practice in spontaneous conversation. Through films and speakers, they gained a broader knowledge of French history and culture.

At one meeting Mrs. Dorrance Higby, who was born in France, spoke about French customs. To celebrate Christmas the members had a party.

Social Activities Include Banquet

Promoting a more thorough knowledge of Roman life, culture, and history was the chief concern of the Latin Club, advised by Miss Virginia Howard. Serving as officers were Terry Zimmerman, president; Mary Williams, vice-president; Alison Sorgen, secretary; and Ken Christman, treasurer.

Every third Thursday of the month the Latin Club met to engage in social activities. Among the many activities this year were seeing the slides of Miss Howard's European trip and the annual Roman Banquet held in the spring.

Club Advisor Presents Colorful Slide Program

Mr. Robert Coppersmith, advisor of this year's German Club, and Terry Squire, president, pointed out that the main purpose of this organization was to further interest in the German language and culture.

Having planned several activities for the year, the club enjoyed a talk by a German minister, a slide program by Mr. Coppersmith, a trip to a German Church, and a German Christmas party.

Meeting every other Wednesday in Room 402, Terry Squire was assisted by Tony Hubbard, vice-president; Helen Smith, secretary; and Nancy Goettl, treasurer.

Foreign Friendships in A.F.S. ...

"Only 35¢ for a beautiful A.F.S. folder."

The Mansfield Chapter of American Field Service, advised by Richard Beal, was responsible for sponsoring and financing an exchange student from a foreign country. Although it is part of a worldwide organization, the Mansfield Chapter must earn a definite amount of money within a school year to bring a student to the city of Mansfield.

To head the affairs of this year's A.F.S. was President Bud Huber assisted by Kathy Klippel, vice-president; Sue Tatgenhorst, secretary and Susie Smith, treasurer. The club had several important money-raising projects throughout the year. The members sold popular A.F.S. folders, Christmas ribbon candy, and dried gourds, and also sponsored several school dances.

Having set their goal at one thousand dollars, the members met every other Thursday of the month in their effort to reach that goal. Because they realized the importance of better world relations among students, many M.H.S. students participated in the Mansfield Chapter of A.F.S.

The Cooperative Office Education group, coordinated by Mr. Woodrow Williams, concentrated its study on office education valuable in secretarial or office careers.

Mr. Williams placed senior students in part-time office work throughout the city and all C.O.E. students left school at noon. This program was one of several co-op training groups at M.H.S. that offered students valuable work experience.

Vocational Club Plans Trip to Henry Ford Museum

The Vocational Club of M. H. S. gave students in the vocational department a chance to participate in both business and social activities. Advised by Mr. C. L. Smith and Mr. Nickolas Miu, the club planned several programs, including a decal sale and a spring trip to the Henry Ford Museum in Dearborn, Michigan.

The Officers of the Vocational Club this year were Reinhardt Metzger, president; Pete Marfia, vice-president; Ron Bradon, secretary; and Dave Calland, treasurer.

Hypnotist Presents Informative Program

One of the most interesting clubs at M. H. S. this year was the Science Club, advised by Mr. Charles Marchant. The purpose of this club is to "promote interest in science."

Terry Squire served as president; Larry Hepner, vice-president; Linda Garber, secretary; and Juli Konves, treasurer. These four officers planned several informative programs and activities for the members of the club and any other interested students.

A program on the science of hypnotism was presented by Mr. Ralph Ridenour early in the year. Several students participated in a demonstration and were hypnotized by Mr. Ridenour. Another project was visiting Ohio Brass.

"Service above Self"

The Junior Rotarians of Senior High School were boys chosen by Mr. Robert Glass on the basis of a high grade average and participation in school activities. Mr. Vern Hoffman was in charge of all the Junior Rotarians in Mansfield, while Mr. Glass served as the advisor at Senior High.

Each Tuesday several members of the group, accompanied by Mr. Glass, went to the Mansfield Leland Hotel to have lunch with members of the Rotary Club. The Rotary Club, which has the motto "Service above Self," wished to give young men an insight into the functions of a service organization. This was done by introducing several leaders of our community to the Junior Rotarians and by presenting stimulating programs throughout the year. The students from M.H.S., in turn, gained a better idea of the role they must play upon becoming adults in our progressive community.

Key Club Recognizes Leaders at M.H.S.

Headed by Kerry Dean, president, the Key Club of M. H. S. was organized for the purpose of giving the leaders of Senior High an opportunity to develop their initiative, leadership, and citizenship through useful projects for the school and community.

The Key Club, advised by Mr. Robert O'Brien, met every Wednesday night at the Y.M.C.A. Assisting Kerry as officers were Junior Parr, vice-president; Tony Hubbard, secretary; and Doug Dworski, treasurer.

The Key Club served Mansfield well, building unification and recognition of leaders in high school.

Senior Hi-Y Sends Delegates to State Convention

Meetings were informal.

The Senior Hi-Y was divided into two groups--the original and the new. Elected as officers of the new Hi-Y were Martin Sandel, president; Doug Dworski, vice-president; Dennis Kopcial, secretary; Jerry Miller, treasurer; and Larry Heichel, chaplain. Serving the original Hi-Y were Alan Fliegel, president; Ron Klein, vice-president; David Stickney, secretary; John Masquelier, treasurer; and Tom Phelps, chaplain.

Both groups sent several delegates to the Youth in Government Conference at Columbus. During the Holiday season the Senior Hi-Y sponsored a Christmas dance.

New York Trip Highlights A Year of Varied Activities

For many girls, membership in the Senior Y-Teens was the combination of a three-year program of activities in the Y.W.C.A. Susie Spain served as president; Sherry Sowers, vice-president; Janice Mento, secretary; Kathy Meister, treasurer; Kathy Simon, chaplain; and Susie Smith, Inter-Club Council Representative.

In addition to philanthropic activities, Senior Y-Teens worked on many service projects and money-making projects, earning money for a trip to New York during Easter vacation.

During the three years the girls were together, they succeeded not only in establishing Christian fellowship among themselves, but in helping others.

Oh, just another Monday night meeting.

The purpose of the Junior Hi-Y was to "promote the welfare of the community and to maintain a sportsmanlike conduct of the members." This was achieved by the members participating in a hay-ride, a candy sale, various service projects, and various money-making projects.

With Mr. Dennis Davis serving as club advisor, Junior Parr was elected president; Greg Loiko, vice-president; Bruce Olson, secretary; Dan Coe, treasurer; and Mark Hoy, chaplain. The Junior Hi-Y met every Monday at the Y. M. C. A.

Two advisors, Miss Ann Buchwalter and Miss Nancy Schuler, were present every Monday evening when the girls met at the "Y."

The general purpose of this organization includes three main principles: growth in the understanding and love of God, growth as an individual, and growth in the understanding of other people. This purpose was achieved through service projects for the community. The club also sponsored three dances, went Christmas caroling, and were responsible for donating Christmas baskets to the needy.

Tygers Finish Disappointing Season 2-8

Although the injury-ridden Mansfield Tyger football team played well, they fell to eight of their ten powerful opponents. Using their new "flip-flop" offense at Cuyahoga Falls, the Tygers showed considerable ability but lost in a hard-fought game 13-12. Harry Waldman, the first team defensive halfback, was injured and could not play for the rest of the season. Against Cleveland East the Bengals showed little offensive punch to suffer their second defeat 16-0. The Tygers received a tremendous blow in the third quarter of this game when Ron Parr broke his left leg. In the last of the non-conference games our arch rival Massillon triumphed 26-0 before a crowd of 9,500 at Arlin Field. Almost every offensive maneuver by the Tygers was stopped by the powerful Tiger defense before it could get under way.

Senior High became the first Mansfield school to win a 1964 football game as they scored a two-point extra try after the touchdown to defeat Fremont 8-6. The victory over Fremont put Mansfield into a tie for first place in the Buckeye Conference. The next week, utilizing devastating ball-control, Lorain Admiral King routed the Bengals 31-6. Kerry Dean, the starting quarterback, fractured his thumb during this game. In another hard game Elyria, the Buckeye Conference champions, smashed through our defense for a 36-0 win. Dan Coe, who played first team defensive tackle, was injured and could not play after this game.

Marion was stormed by the Tygers in a 20-6 romp for our second victory in the Buckeye Conference. To start the following game, Homecoming Queen, Betsy Schlegel, threw the game football to the head referee for the Lorain Senior game. The mighty Steelers held the Tyger offense to six points, as they passed to a 16-6 victory. Findlay and Mansfield traded touchdowns until the Tygers were forced to punt and sacrificed their lead. The Tygers were defeated 38-24 in the game at Findlay. During the next game Sandusky, rated seventh in the state, overpowered the Bengals for a 48 to 6 victory. Dave Hutchins ran thirty-six yards for the only Tyger score. The team ended the season with a 2-8 record.

Their Way Through Tough Schedule

A moment long to be remembered.

Betsy Schlegel reigned over the 1964 Homecoming, "Portraits of Majesty," sponsored by the junior class.

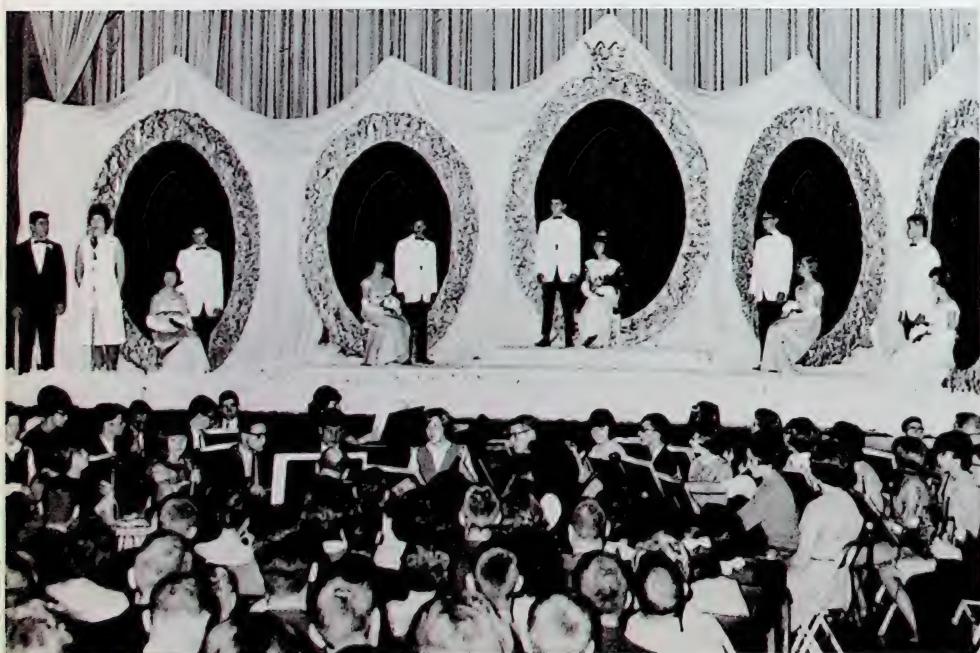

Betsy was escorted by Dave Schroeder. Attending Betsy were Tina Bare, escorted by Bob Skartved, Suzanne Russell, escorted by Roger Gump, Alexis Owings, escorted by Jon Bletz and Judy Jeffries, escorted by Ron Ruckman.

After being crowned by Kathy Simon, last year's queen, Queen Betsy was presented with the football by Ron Parr and Charlie Williams, co-captains of the Tygers.

Bruce Olson introduced the speaker, Mr. Robert Brownson, athletic director of Ashland College.

Queen Betsy and her court reigned over the Lorain Senior-Mansfield Senior High game. A dance honoring the queen and her court was held in the gym.

Tygers Win Buckeye Conference Crown

The Tygers, led by Head Coach Jim Burkett and his assistant, George Swank, started their 1964-1965 basketball season sneaking by Fremont with a two-point margin, 38-36. In the second game the Tyger five was defeated, 82-69, by Lorain Admiral King, but bounced back to a 70-45 victory over its arch-rival Ashland.

The basketballers then went on to win eight games straight, bringing their season record to ten wins and one loss. During this winning streak the Bengals squeezed by Elyria 42-40, and rolled over Marion, Lorain, and Findlay by scores of 65-50, 78-55, and 64-53, respectively.

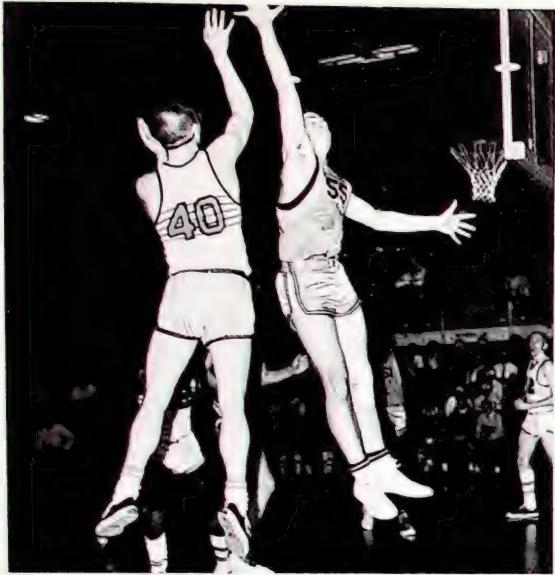

In its first clash of the new year Senior High faced the Upper Sandusky Rams. Then the Tygers traveled to Sandusky and defeated the Blue Streaks 62-54. Terry Swarn, senior center, had the finest game of his career, pouring through 26 points. In a hard-fought game the Tygers beat Fremont, again by just 2 points, as Ron Hollinger put the ball in the hoop at the sound of the gun ending the third overtime.

The Tygers then gained revenge over Lorain Admiral King, trouncing it 77-63. In the next game Mansfield was defeated by a very fine Canton Lincoln team by the score of 77-64. The next week Senior High got back on the winning streak defeating Elyria 63-54 only to have Marion win 61-55. Ron Hetler went over the 20 point mark, netting 24 points. In February Senior High proved its basketball power by rolling over the Lorain Steelmen 90-56. Hetler led all scorers in the game getting 22 points. Later the Tygers traveled to Findlay, where they clinched the Buckeye Conference Crown by the score of 74-66. The Tygers were paced by Ron Hetler, who hit for 31 points, which was his season high. Senior High was defeated by Cuyahoga Falls 70-63, and ended its season beating Sandusky 52-46, giving the Tygers a final record of 14-4.

The Mansfield Tygers moved into the tournament games and stopped the Lexington Minutemen by the score of 75-61. In their second tournament game the Tygers romped over the Ashland Arrows 68-48. In their last tournament game, despite a one-man scoring rampage by L.C. Sutton with 26 points, the Tygers went down to defeat by hot-shooting Marion, 67-52.

Head Coach Jim Burkett was named the Northwest District Coach of the Year; Ron Hetler and Terry Swarn were named to the first and second teams respectively.

The strong Mansfield Tyger wrestling team placed second in both the Buckeye Conference meet and the J. C. Gorman Tournament. The Bengals, led by Coaches Flanegan and Lutz, split with their two conference foes, Sandusky and Fremont, in dual meets. Working hard all season, the Tyger team had a 6-4 record, and five members of the team qualified for the district meet, with Dan Stehle going on to the state tournament in Columbus.

CLASS OF 1966

Homecoming and Point System

Highlight Junior Class

The 514 members of the Class of 1966 made many worthwhile contributions to student life at M. H. S. Under the direction of their capable officers and advisors, the students initiated the point system to honor the juniors who were active in class projects. Upon earning a given number of points, the student was awarded a lapel pin.

Their excellent homecoming, "Portraits of Majesty," required many hours of hard work from all the students who participated. The class also acquired a bulletin board at the top of the cafeteria stairs in order to inform the juniors of class activities. Another of their projects involved sending get-well cards to class members who were in the hospital. The successful year was completed when, on the ninth of June, the Junior Prom was held in Pete Henry Gymnasium.

Sophomores Adjust Quickly

The 508 members of the sophomore class were full of anticipation when they arrived at M.H.S. to begin classes in early September. A new school life filled with activities, sport events, and learning awaited them.

The sophomores soon cast off the shackles of upperclassmen's chiding and became an active part of school life. They held their class election late in November, and the newly elected officers immediately initiated a program to promote enthusiasm within the class. All sophomores were invited to attend the sophomore executive committee meetings which were held every Tuesday morning.

The class got off to a good start towards obtaining funds for its graduation when it held its first money making project, a dance, on February 13. A candy sale, held early in March, was also a great success.

"Enchanted Evening," which was just what its name indicated, was the theme of the sophomore prom. This event brought to a close a highly rewarding sophomore year for the Class of 1967.

Both the students and the faculty enjoyed the special music which Mr. Hall's organizations presented at assemblies.

The seniors sometimes thought this was where all underclassmen belonged.

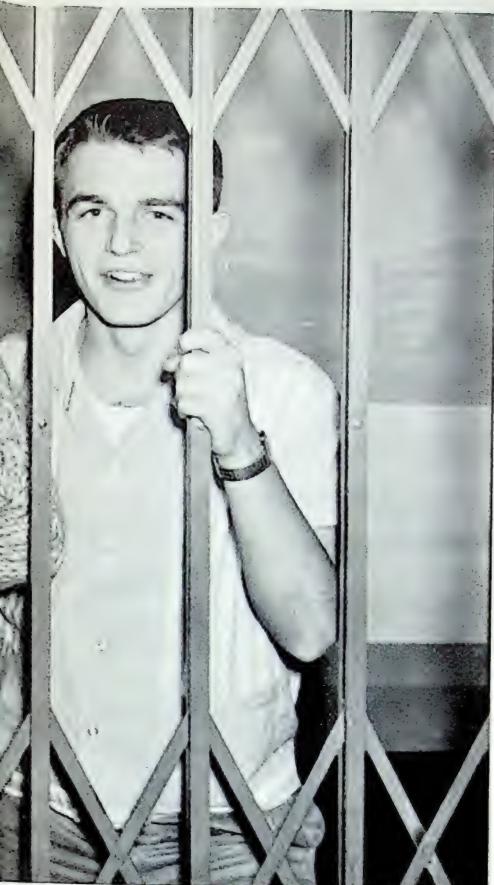

New concepts in chemistry are learned through experimentation by Hanna Ickert and Carla Golder.

Juli Konves, Jane Beal, and Kathy Wiegand proofread each other's speeches shortly before the junior class elections.

The Life of an Underclassman

Tyger Band members waited nervously for performance time as they enjoyed the visiting band's show.

The underclassmen of Senior High School led diversified lives, filled with activity and many rewarding experiences. Thinking about an upcoming performance with fear and anticipation, attempting to learn a speech, and developing new ideas in a classroom--all these were part of the learning processes of an underclassman.

Each junior and sophomore, no matter what his interests and capacities might have been, was a part of our student life, and M. H. S. certainly will produce some memory for each student to take with him when he leaves this institution of learning.

The education of an underclassman is never completed.

"Rip 'em up, tear 'em up . . ."

Recollections

Maybe next year.

The seniors' downfall--physics.

Nobody will forget Ron Hetler's floating jump shot.

The M-Section added color and excitement to pep assemblies.

"We beat Lexington!"

This year's pep assemblies added a touch of sex appeal.

"Come on, you Tygers, fight!"

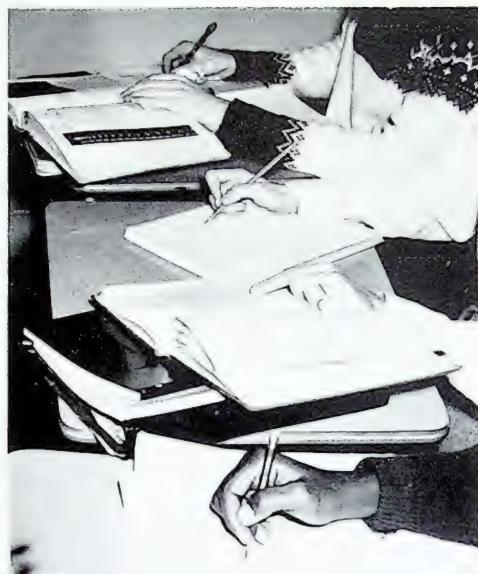

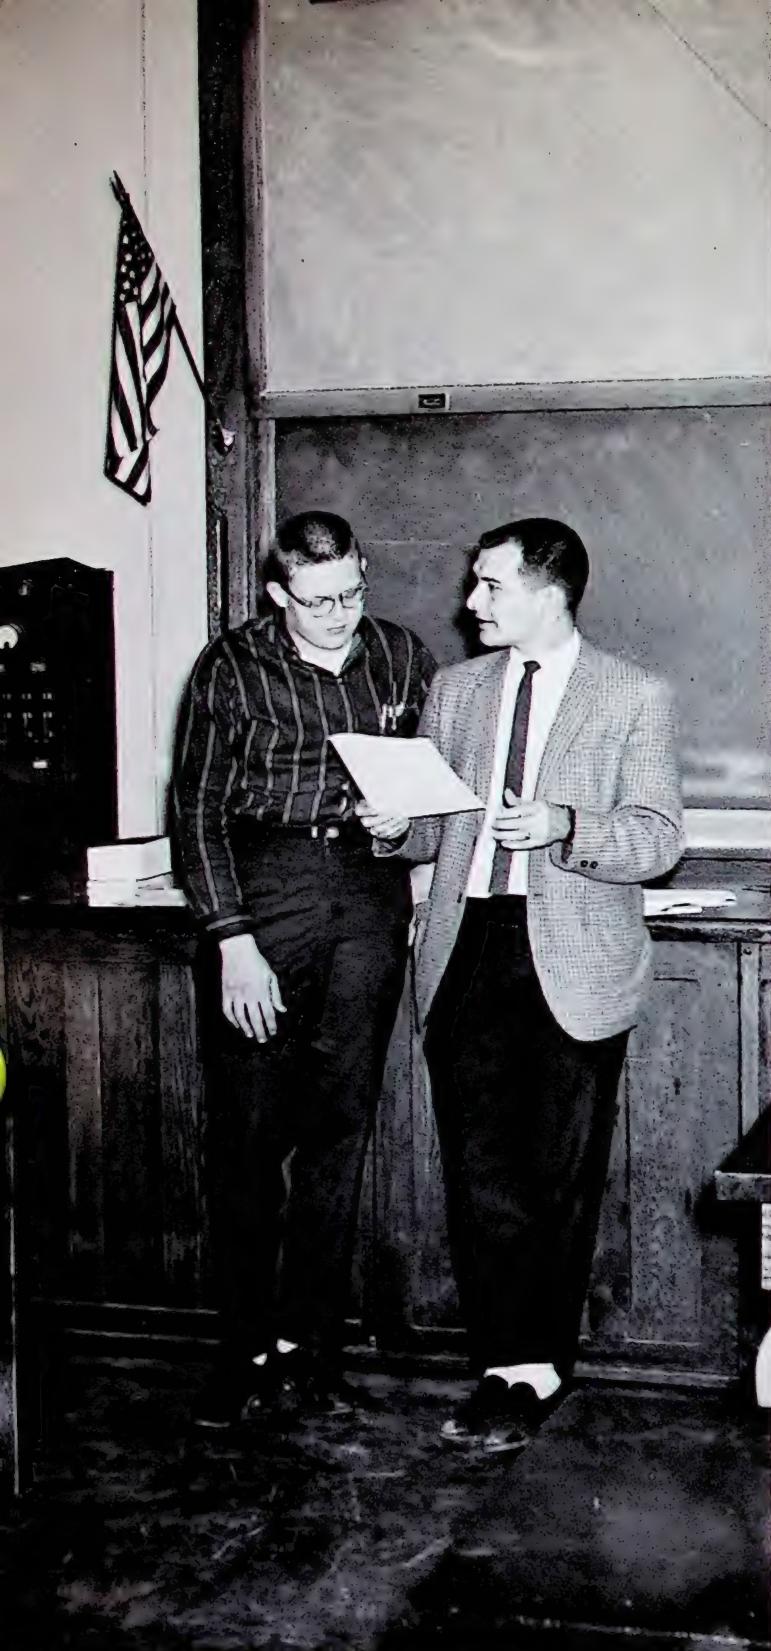

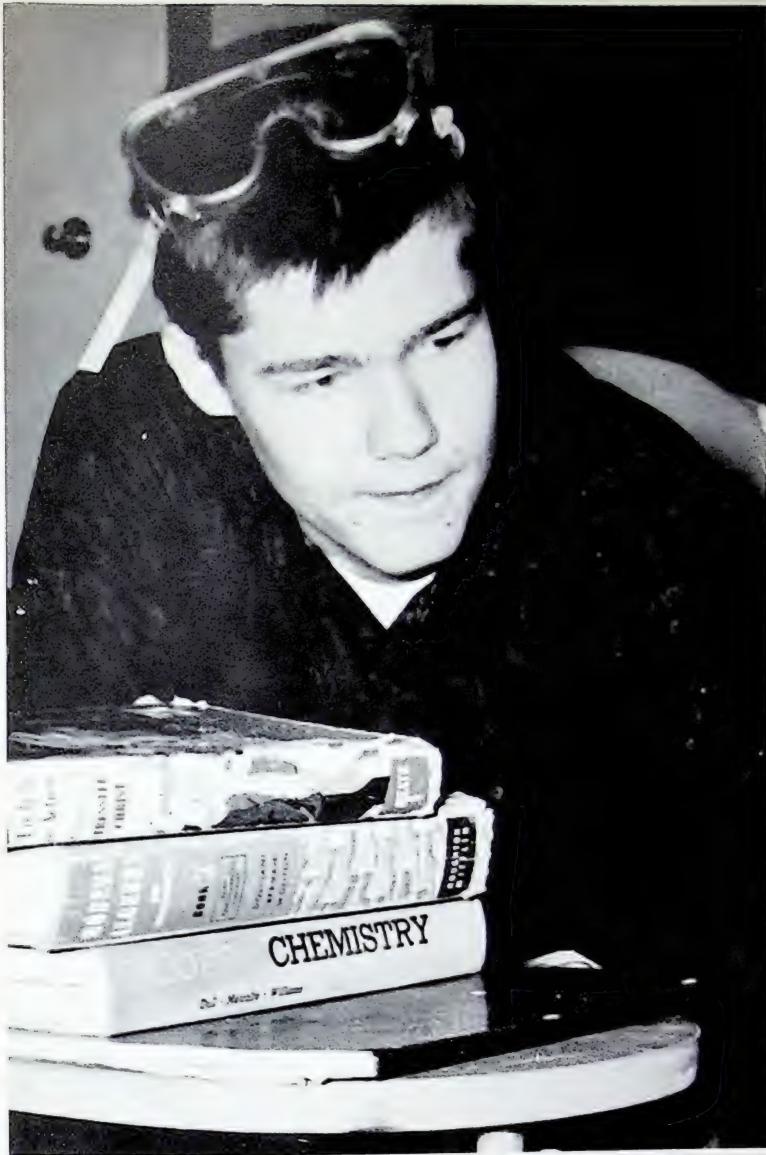

"Give me a B!"

The Year of Spirit

Todd Humphrey and Charlie Harpster present Coach Jim Burkett with a gift from the H. R. & D. Section.

The learning process took many forms. By extreme concentration and intensive study, we were able to grasp difficult concepts. Discussion with other students and after-school conferences with our teachers clarified fine points. Always there were disappointments, but a part of our education was learning to admit defeat, accept the new and greater challenge, and then to persevere until the obstacle was conquered and the goal--worthy of the Tyger--was achieved.

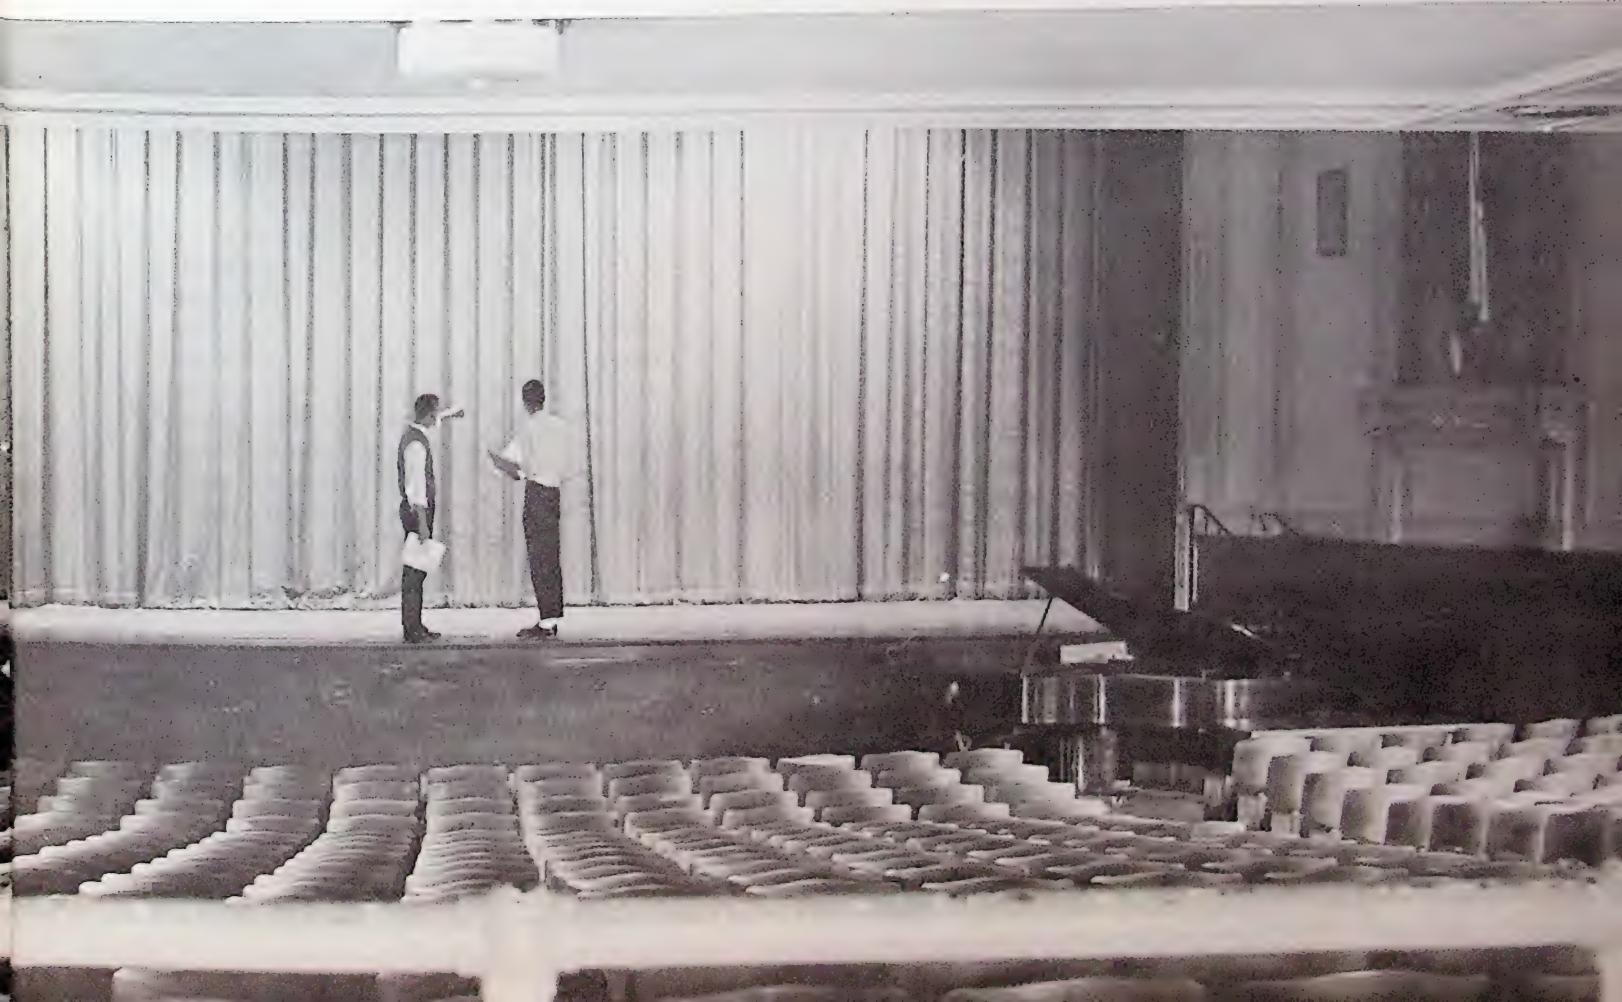

Tyger and Mansfield Senior High School are synonymous. Each of us students who have attended M. H. S., studied in its classrooms, relaxed at its dramatic productions, and enjoyed after-the-game dances has helped to sustain Senior High's prestige as one of Ohio's foremost high schools.

Upon graduation we leave the Tyger's lair, but a portion of us is left behind, forever to remain a part of the Tyger.

To Ourselves-The Manhigan Staff

Randy Poling, faculty editor, was assisted by Sherry Schoonmaker.

The work and worry of Editor-in-Chief John Hoeffler and Assistant Editor Bob Brown is never finished.

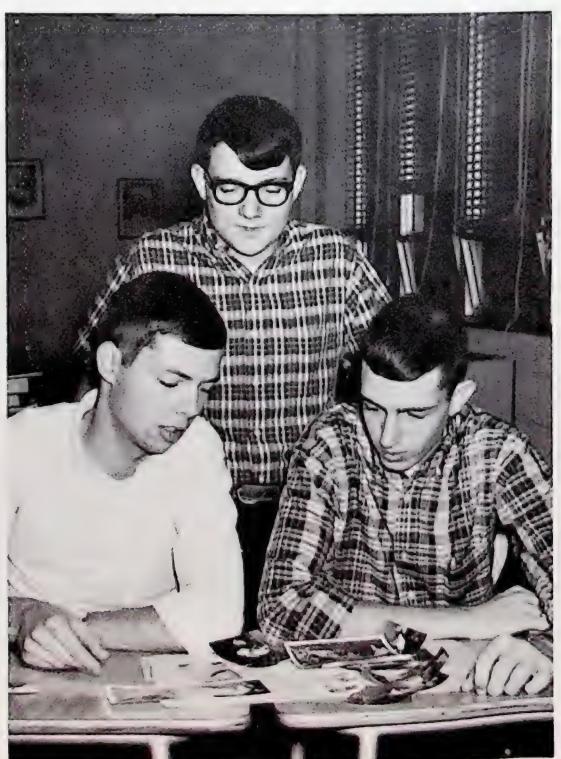

Pausing from a busy schedule is the seniors section staff, Helen Bissman, editor, Randy Craig, and Lonnie Guegold.

The sports staff, Editor Jerry Burkhart, Martin Campbell, and Danny Starnes, look over their pictures.

The underclassmen staff included Debbie Martz, Editor Dick Harbaugh, and Linda Cross.

Mrs. McClellan, advisor, had the final word on all decisions.

Pasting their club section plates are JoAnn Roth, Kathy Wiegand, and Editor Resa Nichols.

Advising his staff of Gail Garnes and Cathy Heiser, is Ted Fraker, activities editor.

The features staff is Kathe Ott, editor, and Cheryl Horning.

Typist Margaret Ingram was constantly busy.

In Retrospect

You have just read the 1965 edition of the Manhigan. While this is only the perennial addition to the continuing story of MHS, we hope that you have found this book appealing because of its difference; informality has been the key word on the Manhigan staff this year.

We have tried to present an encompassing picture of this school year--its emotions, its activities, and its hard work. Our duty was to represent each student, and we have striven to fulfill our obligation.

Many people have played a major role in the production of this book. Without their help there would be no Manhigan.

To the faculty of MHS we express our appreciation for their cooperation when it became necessary for us to disrupt their classes. A special understanding is needed between teachers and the Manhigan staff, and this year we feel this understanding has contributed much to our book.

To Mr. Glass go our thanks for his sage advice from our first consultations in August to our final deadline in April. Mr. Glass' enthusiasm toward the Manhigan has always imbued the staff with the desire to excel.

We owe our thanks to Mrs. Kennedy, our business advisor, who spearheaded our successful subscription sales, and the business staff for their skillful handling of the Manhigan's financial matters.

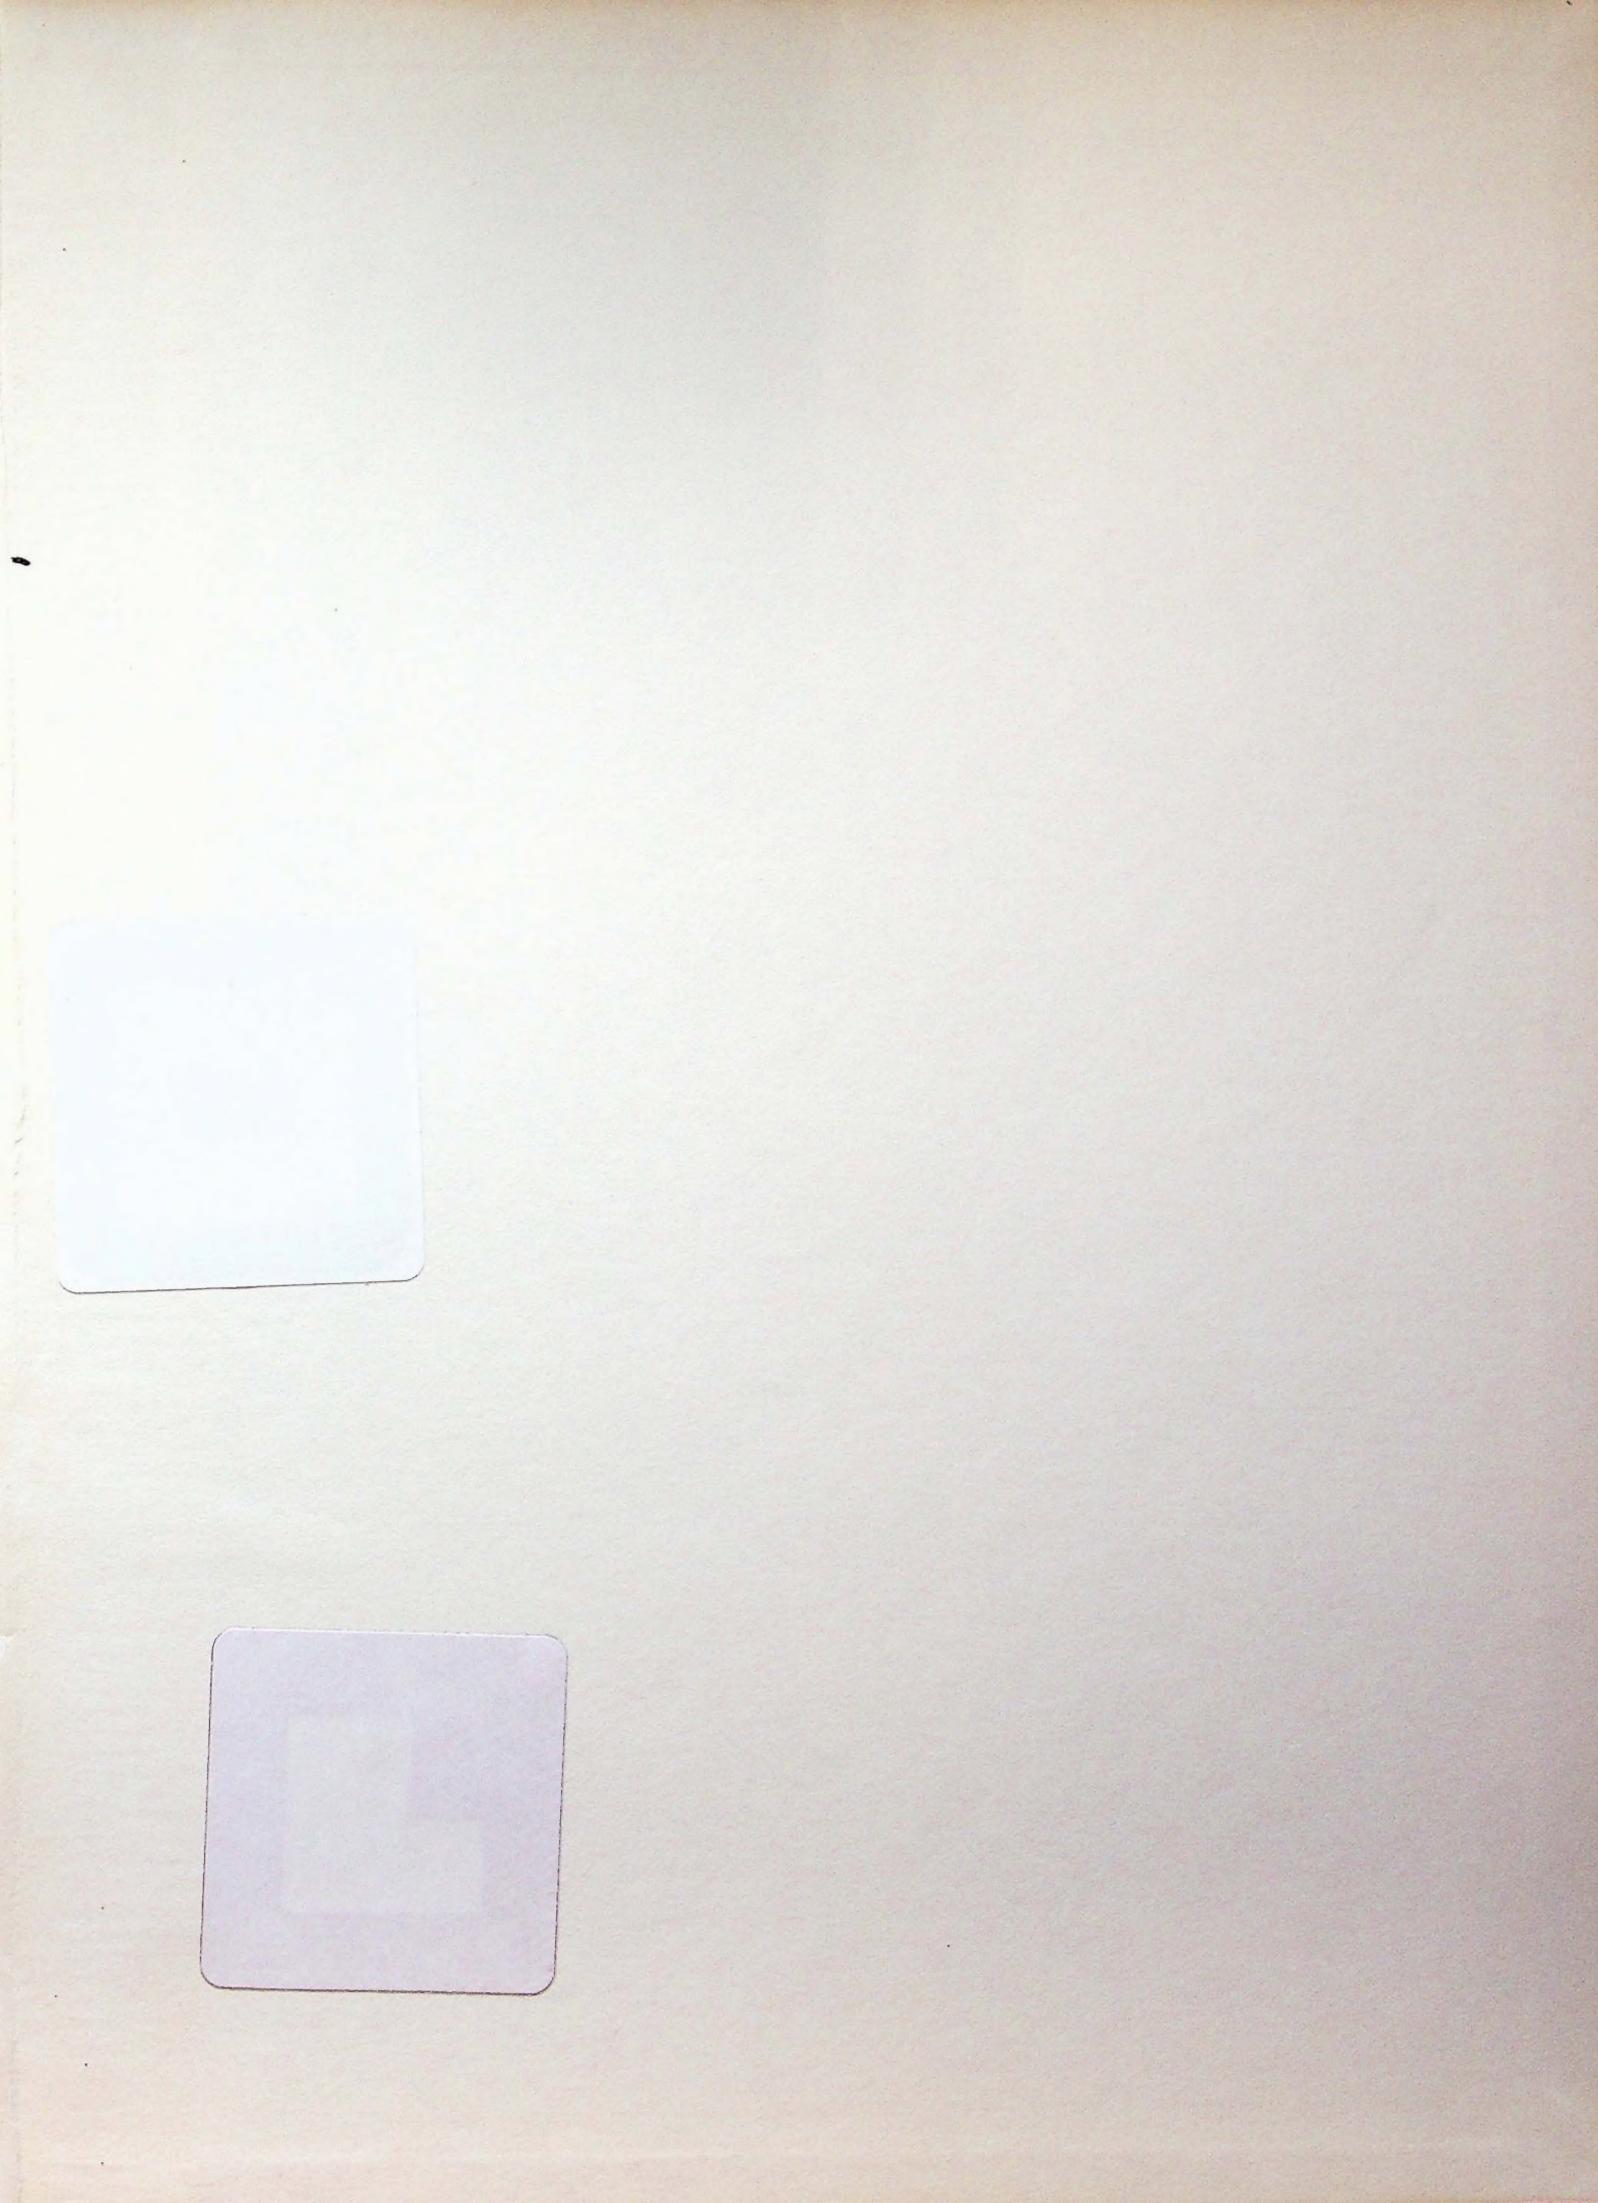

To our staff, who worked long hours, never failing us, we extend our deepest gratitude. At times our good-natured chiding reached the point of sarcasm; for this we are sorry. We hope you realized that our slavedriving had only one purpose, the issue of a good yearbook. The book was uppermost in our minds as it was in yours.

In a student endeavor such as this, the capability of the advisor determines to a great degree the success of the project. By this barometer our book is excellent. Thank you, Mrs. McClellan, for all the hours you have given us. We appreciate your willing help confidence in us, and an occasional admonishing word when the going got rough. The hours after school, the long Saturday workdays, and the much-appreciated doughnuts, will always remind us of what you have done for us. Again we express our gratitude to you, Mrs. McClellan.

To you the students of MHS, we extend our thanks for the cooperation you have given us throughout the year. We wish you luck in whatever you do and wherever you go. Always remember the Tyger. He will never forget you.
